

ELIT DH58

Drive sleeve for protection of 5/8" earth rods during driving into ground

Technical description

Impact tool is an auxiliary tool for driving ground rods without damaging or deforming the rod ends. Construction is in high-quality hardened steel and provides robust and perfect driving force. Intended for driving 5/8" ground rods.

Advantages:

Protects the ground rods during driving into the ground
Solid, hardened and can be used for numerous times
Intended for driving 5/8" ground rods

|                            |                      |                                    |
|----------------------------|----------------------|------------------------------------|
| Product name/ Art.nr/ GTIN |                      | ELIT DH58/ 30100002/ 7070810000937 |
| According to:              |                      | ---                                |
| Model                      | Impact head          |                                    |
| Diameter earthing pin      | 14 - 14,5 Millimetre |                                    |
| Material                   | Steel                |                                    |
| Surface protection         | Other                |                                    |